ALDERMEN MAY GIVE VENT ON INVESTIGATION

Much Discussed Question of Telephone Rates Again to be Dealt With.

COUNCIL WILL HAVE BUSY TIME TONIGHT

Property Owners' Association Protest Against Method of Tree Planting.

Considerable discussion over the present police investigation may be indulged in by members of the city council at the regular meeting tonight. It is intimated in some quarters that several of the aldermen will take the opportunity to air their opinions on this all absorbing topic that is confronting the people of the city today.

Operation of telephone rates will again be one of the foremost items of business that will be taken up at the meeting. The much discussed question which was again referred back to the council, will be dealt with by the committee by the whole. It is expected that some definite decision will be arrived at in connection with the adjustment of the same.

The report on the investigation of the building inspector's department will also occupy the attention of the civic fathers. A recommendation will also be considered to grant a number of sewer and water services in outlaying parts of the city.

The Edmonton Property Owners association will also call the body's attention to negligence on the part of tree planting by the construction department. Also to the utter lack of organization in caring and watering those already planted along city boulevards.

The letter follows:

Referring to Commissioner Saunders' report No. 519, published in the Official Gazette, which deals with our letter of June 1st:

This report states that our letter was a blanket one and dealt with trees which were planted last year and replaced this year. This letter will therefore deal with report No. 519 and the attempt made to mislead the council as it does not deal with all the work of tree planting done by the construction department this year.

For example the report refers to Nelson avenue, north to Churchill on Sixth street, and does not report the work done on Sixth street south of Vermilion avenue.

Trees were planted on this street this year by the construction department, a number of them the same day as they were planted north, the balance were planted some days later and trees were left beside the holes at least two days before they were planted.

Therefore, if our association (as the report states) saw dead trees taken from the boulevards by the streets department we maintain the construction department planted those dead trees on Sixth street.

Report No. 519 states that two pails of water was placed in the holes just prior to the placing of the tree. This is true in some instances and in others not, as on Sixth street water was placed in the holes five days before the trees were planted in the south end of this street.

Re watering trees: We would draw attention to lack of organization in this connection, as on June 2 trees on Sixth street were watered by a gang of men who took water from barrels in a wagon, and in a few hours later the same day another gang of men watered the same trees from a tank on a wagon with hose attached. Therefore duplicating the work which we claim is a waste of money.

The report also states that in every instance trees are trimmed by an expert who knows his business. We would refer you to Fourth street, where you will find some trees trimmed and some not trimmed.

You will notice we have only dealt with the unreliability of the report so far as two streets are concerned.

In our letter dated June 1st we referred to the planting of trees on 103rd street and complained of these trees being planted in dry hard clay. On this occasion we asked why this was done, one of the men said the water wagon had not arrived that afternoon; we asked for the foreman and was told that he was at his office in the city hall. We then asked the man who was trimming the trees if he was experienced. He said no, that he was told to cut the longest limbs off and that was what he was doing.

We then asked if they expected to plant all afternoon without water, and was told that they had waited quite a while for the water wagon, and as it had not come, and as there were some 20 men idle waiting for it, that they thought they would start work; this was at 2.30 p.m.

We note in the commissioners' report that it states that the work was done far below the estimated cost in every instance. Would your honorable body furnish us with the cost per tree planted this year?

Specifications from the Alberta Lumber company in connection with the erection of the new fire halls will receive consideration.

The granting of an industrial site to the Edmonton Iron Fence and Wire Works will be gone into and possible decision in regard to a suitable location will likely be made.

The closing of a portion of Short avenue will be another matter the council will deal with the advisability of so doing. Amendments will also be introduced regarding the building and pound bylaws.

STRATHCONA'S WILL IS ENTERED FOR PROBATE; MAKES MANY GIFTS

Montreal, June 16—The will of the late Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal, high commissioner of Canada, has been entered for Canadian probate at Montreal, probate having been in England on March 19.

The Royal Victoria college of Montreal receives from the will more than any other institution. Lord Strathcona has provided a fund amounting to $1,000,000. He also donates to the Royal Victoria college the land fronting on Sherbrooke street, worth about $250,000.

The other legacies are :

Five thousand for Principal Peterson personally, of McGill; $11,000 for Christy E. MacKay, of Montreal; $100,000 for an extension for Queens University, Kingston, Ont.; $6,000 for the endowment of a professorship in the Presbyterian college, Montreal.

One clause remits and cancels all debts owing to Lord Strathcona by the estate of the late Sir Richard Cartwright, the estate of the late Lieutenant-Colonel William Whyte, at one time deputy postmaster-general of Canada, and the Hon. Geo. E. Foster.

The whole residue of his lands and estates are bequeathed to his daughter, the Hon. Margaret Charlotte Howard, who also receives the income of $2,500,000 to be invested on her behalf by the trustees. His niece, Margaret M. Smith, of Edinburgh, receives $100,000, and a similar amount is given to Eliza Jane Grant, of Forres, Scotland. All his land at Pictou, N.S., part of which is known as the Norway House property, is given to James Hardisty Smith, of 198 Peel street, Montreal, who also has invested for his benefit $125,000. St. John's college, Cambridge, receives $50,000 and Yale university $500,000. There is in addition a long list of hospitals and charitable institutions, mainly in the United Kingdom, which receive bequests.

"And I declare that I am and I intend to remain a domiciled Scotsman," is one short clause in the will, which is contained in 29 typewritten pages, dated June 15, 1903.

SEYMOUR SAID LANCEY SHOOK LIKE A LEAF

Mrs. Jack Sutter Says Inspector Seymour Came to Tell House to Close the Night ex-Chief Lancey was Dismissed—"Lancey is Dismissed ; He is Shaking Like a Leaf ; It is an Awful Surprise to All of Us," Reported as His Hurried Message to the Landlady—Jack Sutter Swears he Was Offered Protection by Oro West—Deputy Chief Wright Resigns.

Deputy Chief Samuel Wright, who today handed in his resignation from the force to Chief Hill, declared in court that ex-Chief Lancey had told him before he was fired that his hands were tied and that he was sick of the whole business. This was when Wright told Lancey that things could not go on much longer as they were.

Wright informed O. M. Biggar, counsel for the investigation, that he "might tell a whole lot if he was asked properly." Mr. Biggar, in dismissing Wright for the present stage, asked him to suggest on what lines he would like to be questioned and he would be glad to conduct his examination later after he (Wright) had had time to think about the things he would tell.

Jack Sutter, who with his wife formerly kept a rooming house on Clara street, stated that a man named Oro West, who lived with the woman Fay West already mentioned in the case, had offered to arrange protection for him, pointing out a man and saying that the money would "go straight to Massie." This witness was very reluctant to tell about the police and Mr. Biggar asked him to stand down while his wife testified.

Mrs. Sutter stated that she was staying over night at the rooming house which she formerly ran at 401 Clara on the night of Lancey's dismissal. Inspector Seymour rushed to the house in a hurry, saying "Lancey is fired; he is shaking like a leaf; it is an awful surprise to all of us." Detective Moore came later with a similar message and told the landlady to close the house.

JUSTICE SCOTT REFUSES GRANT CLARKE'S WISH

Alderman Asked That Messrs. Biggar and Ewing be Instructed by the Bench as to the Method They Should Use in Conducting the Inquiry—Also Told That His Manner Almost Amounted to Contempt of Court.

Challenging the line that the inquiry is taking and alleging that O. M. Biggar, K.C., and A. F. Ewing, K.C., the counsel appointed by Justice Scott, are endeavoring to shield the administration of the city in 1912 and 1913, and to blacken only that of 1914, Alderman Joseph Clarke declared at the police investigation today that Mr. Biggar was the strongest counsel "against him" that he had ever had, and asked Justice Scott to direct Messrs. Biggar and Ewing as to the method they should take in conducting the inquiry.

Justice Scott refused to accede to Alderman Clarke's request and stated that he could not confine the inquiry to the ordinary rules of evidence. He also objected to the loud voice in which Alderman Clarke addressed him, saying "I am not deaf," and remarking that the latter's manner amounted almost to contempt of court.

Sam Wright Present.

Ex-Inspector Seymour was among those called to register as witnesses Others were Richard Lang, private detective, and Detective Lang of the city police force.

Deputy Chief Wright was present in court.

Detective Lang of the city detective department, was first called. He said he had been in all branches of the detective department, and was in the morality department under ex-Inspector Campbell. He went into the morality department the last time under ex-Chief Lancey, in March, and remained in the department till about three weeks before Lancey's dismissal.

Latterly he had taken his instructions from ex-Inspector Seymour. His general instructions under ex-Inspector Campbell were to report all cases of houses of ill-fame. Action was generally taken on sufficient evidence that the house was a disorderly house.

Told Not to Raid Houses.

Seymour gave him instructions to clean up as far as possible all street walkers and solicitors for prostitution. He was told he could not raid houses except on complaints from the neighbors and then they were to be notified to move.

Move them where?—Anywhere.

Until another report was given from the neighborhood where they had gone?—Quite so.

You spoke to Inspector Campbell?—Yes; he remarked to me about the number of disorderly houses in the city.

Under your instructions from your superior officer you thought you had no power to raid them?—Yes.

Witness spoke of rumors in the department to the effect that if he roomed at Campbell's house he would lose his job. Detective Fryant told him that he had heard a conversation to that effect in the detective office.

Just Told to Move.

Detective Derby had also spoken about taking the rooms.

Did you have any conversation with Charles Lancey, captain of detectives? Yes.

When did he take office?—Shortly after Chief Lancey took office.

Witness said that Chas. Lancey advised him not to take the rooms. Witness went on to speak of notifying Inspector Seymour of a house which was

UNMINDFUL OF FATE THEY ENDEAVOR TO RESCUE A COMRADE

He Went Into the Hold of an Oil Ship Filled With Poisonous Gases to Stop a Leak in the Bow, But Was Overcome—Others Die Trying to Save Him and Finish His Task.

Philadelphia, June 16.—The story of the remarkable bravery of six men, who, unmindful of their fate, plunged one after the other into the hold of an oil ship filled with poisonous gases in a final attempt to rescue a comrade and stop a leak in the vessel's bow, was brought to light yesterday, when the British oil ship, San Valero, docked at Point Breeze, from Tuxpan, Mexico, where the six of the members of the crew are buried in the sand dunes in a single grave alongside a Standard Oil pipe line.

The men who lost their lives are: H. F. Elliott, first mate, Sunderland; W. Shuff, Dover; H. C. Cousins, Eastham; C. Connell, Suffolk; W. F. Stanhope, a fireman, (all Englishmen) and W. Gardiman, of Finland.

Elliott was the first to go down. One by one the other men went down and stayed down to try to rescue him and assist in stopping the leak. The captain refused to permit further sacrifices and signalled by wireless to Tuxpan for assistance. The Standard Oil company launch responded and aided by a fireman in a "smoke" helmet, at last reached the six men, but they were dead.

SEVEN KILLED AND MANY INJURED IN A TENEMENT FIRE

Milford, Mass., June 16—Seven men were burned to death and 20 seriously injured when 30 persons were trapped in a burning Armenian lodging house here early today.

The bodies were taken from the upper floors of the four and a half storey brick and wooden building. In addition to the 20 men taken to the hospital suffering from burns or from injuries received in jumping from windows, 30 sustained minor hurts.

The interior of the building was burned out.

The fire, the cause of which has not been determined, started in the dining hall on the ground floor of the structure. When the firemen arrived flames were shooting through all four floors. There was a scene of wild excitement as the crazed foreigners attempted to save their lives. The building, erected more than 50 years ago, formerly was used as a shoe factory and its timbers were impregnated with oils. The heat was intense.

The victims were laborers and molders employed at a manufacturing plant in Hopedale. None of them had families. The financial loss was small.

GLEICHEN HOLDS GREAT STAMPEDE

NOT ONE ACCIDENT OCCURS

"Bob" Wilson, Innisfail, Wins All-Round Cowboy Championship.

One of the finest wild west shows ever pulled off in Canada was witnessed at Gleichen on Thursday and Friday of last week.

The entries in the bucking, steer roping and wild horse contests were very large and that interest was very wide spread may be gleaned from the fact that there were entrants from Oregon, Oklahoma, Texas and other western States as well as from Saskatchewan and all over Alberta. Except for a slight shower each day, the weather was everything to be desired and the immense crowds from Calgary, Medicine Hat and elsewhere enjoyed themselves to the full.

The program was so arranged that there was always something doing, with the result that crowds on the stands never left their seats until the conclusion of each day's events. So delighted were many of the spectators that a large number of visitors made up their minds to stay for the finals and the accommodation was taxed to its utmost to find room for all. Many spent the nights at the N. L. Ranch wagon outfit, belonging to P. Burns and company, and the Bar L.T. outfit, belonging to the P. C. S. company, which had been brought in for the great event. Meals were served in the regular round-up way, and the whole scene looked like a great round-up camp. Everywhere there was animation and bustle, and the brightly colored neckerchiefs and shirts of the cowboys went to make up a picture that would have delighted the great cowboy artists.

Contest after contest followed in rapid succession and enthusiasm among the spectators remained fever high.

The principal winners were:

Bucking contest—First, Emery Le Grandier. Second, "Slim" Parker, Hilsdale, Alta. Third, J. F. Ericson, Munson, Alta.

Steer roping—First, W. Wasson, Hand Hills, Alta. Second, E. Le Grandier.

Mike Hermann of High River, who made third best time in the steer roping, had very hard luck with the horse that won the roping event at Winnipeg. Just as he was going to throw the rope his horse stepped in the loop and he lost considerable time in getting it clear.

Bareback bucking, first day—First—R. Burke, Pendleton, Oregon. Second—L. J. Engstrom, Gleichen, Alta.

Second day—First—Bob Wilson, Innisfail, Alta. Second—L. J. Engerstrom, Gleichen, Alta.

Cowboys' turn race—First—Clem Gardner, Cochrane, Alta. Second—C. Hardwick, Claresholm, Alta.

Cowboys' flat race, first day—First—James Mitchell, Medicine Hat, Alta. Second—D. E. Vinnie. Third—Charles O'Bray, Strathmore, Alta.

Second day—First—James Mitchell, Medicine Hat, Alta. Second—Mike Herman, High River, Alta.

Best all-round cowboy—Bob Wilson, Innisfail, Alta.

At the conclusion of the stampede, expressions of delight were heard on every hand from the spectators and riders alike and many flattering comparisons were made with the Calgary and Winnipeg stampedes. A. P. Day, who has been associated with stampedes all his life, said he had never seen anything to equal it for all-round management and the display put up.

Count de Roaldes and Charles Taprell, of the Alberta hotel, Calgary, who had motored down from the city, also expressed their delight in no unminor nature to man or beast to mar heard the hope expressed that Gleichen might stage another like it next year.

There was not an accident even of a minor nature to man or beast to mar the proceedings, and the committee is more than satisfied with the way everything turned out.

MOTHER DESERTS PRETTY BABE IN NORTH END STORE

The population at the children's shelter was yesterday increased by one, when Miss Rice, Edmonton's police matron, journeyed to the general store of M. Wall, at the corner of 97th and 45th, Norwood, and returned with a six-months-old infant that had a few hours before been left by a woman, saying she would be back shortly for it, and asking if she might leave the youngster there.

It was a peculiar predicament that Mr. Wall found himself in, when never thinking for a moment of anything being wrong, he graciously accepted the young charge to his care, for what he thought only a few minutes at the most, but minutes lengthened into an hour and then more hours, and when the mother of the child failed to return, he notified the police, and Miss Rice made haste to confiscate the unknown bundle of dimples and tears.

Whisky Stills Raided

Regina, June 16.—Three illicit whisky stills were raided on the outskirts of the city last night and three operators of them captured. The men made the stuff in their small cottages with equipment quite above the average and all three worked independently of the others. The liquor was made from wheat and is very strong.

HELP THE GIRLS!

PARIS SWEPT BY MOST TERRIBLE STORM IN YEARS

Floods Burst Sewers and Cause Streets to Cave in All Over City.

TAXI CAB ENGULFED WITH ITS PASSENGERS

Twenty Bodies Clog Sewers While Police and Military Patrol Streets.

Paris, June 16.—The bodies of more than a score of persons, sucked out of sight by a cave-in, following a terrific thunder storm was clogging the sewers of the St. Lazare district last night. Rains burst the conduits, undermined streets and houses, and big patches of thoroughfares have dropped away. The number of deaths or the extent of the damage is unknown. The metropolitan subway is flooded and the traffic has been suspended. Gas mains, telephone wires and the electrical supply have been cut off. Gendarmes armed with powerful lamps, have isolated the affected districts and are now exploring the sunken streets for bodies. The most serious cave-in occurred in the Place Saint Philippe du Roule at the junction of the Rue La Bottie and the Fouberg St. Honore. When the storm was at its height a sharp rending sound was heard in this quarter. Simultaneously 500 square feet of the roadway heaved and sank, carrying with it a number of persons who had taken shelter under the awning of a cafe. The intersection of the Rue Tronchat, the Boulevard Haussman and the Place St. Augustin is a network of cave-ins. Sections of the streets and sidewalks have disappeared, carrying with them several persons. In one of the landslides a passing taxicab was engulfed. The vehicle, containing two passengers, drove into the chasm and as it disappeared from view a woman screamed and waved her hand from the window.

As the vehicle dropped from view a great block of stone slid in upon the taxi-cab. A large wagonette just missed the same fate, the hind wheels sinking axle deep in the soil. The occupants leaped out and made their escape. A cordon of police was established in the vicinity and soldiers ordered out.

The flood rose till it reached a depth of three feet, carrying everything before it.

Gas from broken pipes has caught fire in several sections, although so far there has been no conflagration. While a cordon of police were surrounding the big cave-in of the Rue Haussman and the Rue Tronchet a sheet of flame shot up to the housetops with a terrific detonation. Windows were blown out and walls shattered. A sewer burst alongside the subway on the Rue de Rivoli, putting it out of communication. Another burst in the Rue de Boissy Anglio, carrying away many feet of the pavement and flooding the new subway line under the Place de la Concords. The steeple of the Roumanian church in the Rue Jean De Beauvais was set on fire by lightning but was extinguished. The darkness and military patrol of the streets, along with the demoralized condition of the telephone and telegraph systems has paralyzed what districts where other unknown ravages doubtless have been made by the storm. A few of the suburbs have reported catastrophes and great damage.

Nothing like the violence of the storm has ever been known in Paris. In addition to the floods which have destroyed life and property, the lightning was terrific. Several persons were killed in the street and in their homes. At Choisy, one of the suburbs, three were killed and ten injured by lightning.

STRUCK BY HOOK WHEN SCAFFOLD COLLAPSES; DIES IN 20 MINUTES

Camrose, Alta., June 16.—Carl Forslund, a painter working on the Windsor hotel for Spencer and Spencer was killed here about three o'clock yesterday afternoon when the scaffold hooks on the roof of the building gave away. The scaffold was sixteen feet from the cement sidewalk and Forslund landed on his feet, but one of the large hooks struck him on the head. He died in the hospital twenty minutes later. Coroner Stewart will hold an inquest. J. A. Johnson, who was also on the scaffold at the time, escaped with a slight shake up. Mr. Forslund with his wife and child came to Camrose from near Hobbema, Alta., only a short time ago.

ALSACE-LORRAINE RECRUITS WILL BE EMPLOYED OUTSIDE

New German Army Order Marks Complete Germanisation of These Provinces.

THEIR HOME "ALMOST THE ENEMY'S COUNTRY"

"Highly Welcome Announcement" Says the Ultra Patriotic Press.

Berlin, June 16.—Another important step in the direction of the complete Germanization of the Alsace-Lorraine was announced last night in an army order, according to which the men of Alsace-Lorraine liable to military service will henceforth be assigned to regiments outside of the conquered provinces.

This condition existed prior to 1902, when the Kaiser decreed that 25 per cent. of the Alsace-Lorraine recruits should be "experimentally" permitted to serve in their own provinces. The "experiment" is now ended.

The authorities blame the Alsatian agitators who served in the ranks of the 99th infantry at Zabern last year for this army versus the people conflict, declaring that they divulged the "Wackes" incident and other barracks secrets in anti-German quarters. It is desired to make such men do their army service in the future far away from what the police president of Berlin called "almost the enemy's country."

The ultra-patriotic press describes the cabinet order as "a highly welcome announcement," and a step in the interest of the empire and the imperial provinces.

KENNEDY SITE WILL BE MADE INTO STOCK YARDS BY COMPANY

H. P. Kennedy, one of those who offered the city sites for stock yards, has written a letter to the secretary of the Edmonton board of trade, F. T. Fisher, in which he states that an English syndicate has finally decided to establish independent stock yards northeast of the city, whether the city goes into the stock yards business or not.

Since Mr. Kennedy offered to sell the land which he controlled to the city for stock yards purposes, the city decided on the Santa Rosa subdivision, which is closer in than Mr. Kennedy's property.

Mr. Kennedy also states in his letter that the land which the new company will use for its yards will cost only about one-tenth of what the city is paying for Santa Rosa, that the company will be in a position to offer packers attractive inducements to locate here and that expert, practical men will be at the head of the concern.

MAYOR M'NAMARA THINKS INQUIRY WILL BE USELESS

"My Personal Opinion That Investigation Will Come to Nothing."

GRAFT HAD NOTHING TO DO WITH FIRING

Lancey Dismissed, Declares Mayor, Because He Failed to Raid Joint.

Winnipeg, June 16.—"In my personal opinion the present Edmonton investigation into alleged graft on the part of the chief of police will come to nothing," said Mayor W. J. McNamara of that city yesterday. The Edmonton mayor is one of a party of citizens of that place who were in Winnipeg on their way to Toronto via special train, and departing from Winnipeg at six o'clock last evening.

"I did not attend the investigation," said Mayor McNamara, "with the exception of an hour and a half, when I offered my own evidence on the stand. It is too early to make anything like a correct prognostication as to the outcome, but I think that the investigation will amount to nought. I myself was responsible for the resignation of our former police chief, but graft had nothing to do with it. He was dismissed because he failed to carry out a raid on a notorious gambling joint, ordered by the police commissioner."

Mayor McNamara is of the opinion that Edmonton has secured a capable and efficient chief in the person of their new chief of police, George Hill, who went to that city from St. James a few days ago. "Mr. Hill comes to us highly recommended," said he, "and I firmly believe that he will clean up Edmonton thoroughly."

BISHOPS DISCUSS MORAL QUESTIONS WITH FREE CHURCH

London, June 16—As a definite step towards united Christian action, a conference was held Saturday in the Jerusalem chambers of Westminster Abbey, at which the bishops of Winchester, Oxford and Bath and Wells, with other dignitaries of the Anglican church, discussed with representative free church ministers the possibility of common action of the religious bodies of the country in regard to such matters as purity, temperance, swearing, gambling and general social and moral questions.

REMARKABLY RICH GOLD AND SILVER FIND IN ONTARIO

Haileybury, Ont., June 16—What is claimed to be the biggest gold find of Northern Ontario has been uncovered in Maisonville township, near Sealiknks station, on the T. and N. O. Three veins between 18 and 30 inches, on quartz with heavy tellurides were found on the Labine claims. Assays give $1,300 in gold and $130 in silver to the ton, with a most spectacular surface showing. The find has caused more than ordinary interest among mining men. The claims lie 15 miles north-west of Kirkland, and are owned by Haileybury men.

"ONE MAN ONE VOTE" PLURAL BILL PASSES ITS THIRD READING

London, June 16—The plural voting bill passed its third reading in the house of commons last night by a vote of 242.

The bill passed the first reading for the second time in March. It embodies the principle of "one man, one vote," and provides that before a general election a plural voter must select which of his votes he wishes to register.

ALLEGED WHITE SLAVERS ARE NOW UNDER ARREST

The cleanup of the city continues, and especially are cases in which young girls have been the victims of criminal offences being brought to the notice of the police. At the instigation of Mr. Justice Scott, a man named Harry Bernard was arrested, and the charge against him is that "he did contribute to the delinquency of a child named Daphne Lillibrae in that he did detain the said Dalphine Lillibrae in his room for immoral purposes in company with a prostitue named Daisy Kern."

The warrant of arrest is signed by Bishop Gray, judge of the juvenile court.

Mike Kyriluk has also been arrested on the complaint of a Ruthenian girl named Annie Koepchak, who states that when she came to Edmonton about three weeks ago for the purpose of receiving medical attention, she met the prisoner and was taken to his shack, where four other men were brought for criminal purposes. The details in connection with this case are especially sordid and the case was unearthed by the morality department of the police force.

An attractive white girl named Florence Haines, and two Chinamen named Mah Duck and Mah Choe, were arrested last night in a house on Rice street by officers of the morality department. No less than five procuring cases have been brought to light by this department in as many days.

Carlotta Addison Dead

London, June 16.—Carlotta Addison, the actress who has played scores of roles during the past 50 years, died yesterday. She was born at Liverpool in 1849 and made her first appearance on the stage as a child in Tom Lalor's old play, "Nine Points of the Law."

SMALL WOOL GROWERS OF SASKATCHEWAN GET GOOD PRICES FOR CLIP

Regina, June 16.—Small wool growers who last year received from 8 to 10 cents a pound for their clip, by co-operation through the Saskatchewan branch of the Grain Growers' Grain Co. will all offerings for from 16½ to 16¾ cents net. Through the co-operative organization branch 15,750 fleeces, or more than 25 per cent. of the total crop of Saskatchewan will be marketed. Contract for the sale of the wool has been concluded with Eisemann Bros. of Boston, Mass., and the increased price is in a measure due to the removal of the United States tariff on wool since last season. In arriving at the net prices quoted, deductions have been made in respect to all expenses incidental to shipping.

More Than Last Year

Winnipeg, June 16.—The city council last night received a request from the Winnipeg school board to provide $1,115,000 for school requirements for the current year. This is $115,000 more than last year.

MANY PRECAUTIONS ARE TAKEN TO GUARD THE ROYAL FAMILY

London, June 16.—Never before have such precautions been taken to guard members of the royal family from the suffragettes as were taken today at the Ascot race course. The opening of the leading society race meeting found more than 1,000 London policemen and hundreds of detectives from Scotland Yard assembled on the historic course as reinforcements for the regular Berkshire county police force which had been mobilized in full strength. The six mile route from Windsor Castle to the course was lined all the way by policemen.

The militants, in spite of the queen's request that there be rest day of the season's social engagements showed themselves more determined than ever to obtain publicity for their cause by attacking the king.

The arrangements for guarding the entrance to the royal enclosure on the race course were more stringent than ever. Every applicant for a ticket had to be vouched for by some responsible official.

The track was closely guarded and there were triple rails to prevent any unauthorized persons from reaching it. For several days past throughout the day and night men accompanied by watchdogs have patrolled the course and alarm guns have been placed in position around the stands and lawns.

GAS FLAMES AT MUNDARE GO 200 FEET IN THE AIR

WILL NO DOUBT BE PRODUCING CENTER

Two Syndicates Are Formed to Develop Fields—Geologist Optimistic.

That the indications for oil and gas near Mundare are much more promising than even the first reports indicated is the news brought to the city by F. A. Beddard, who went to the district last week, when rumors first began to float round the city that a homesteader had struck a heavy flow of gas in a well he was digging.

In fact, there is no doubt at all that the district will be a very heavy producer of gas. Indeed the flames leaping into the air 200 feet when the homesteader's brother lit his pipe and ignited the gas, it very appears that the blaze reached a height nearer 200 feet and caused intense heat.

The Russian homesteader who was digging the well was superstitious, it is said, and when he felt what proved to be great gas pressure against the drill from beneath, he believed it was some spiritual force and, becoming alarmed at the pressure and the rumbling noise, went to get his brother. The two looked at the well and again felt the pressure when they tried to drill further down. They could make nothing of it and were just about to turn away when the brother lit a match for a smoke—and then the homesteaders surely did think a spirit was venting wrath on them and that the end of the world had come.

Blaze Is Terrific.

"It was funny to hear him tell the episode," said Mr. Beddard this morning. "His description of the 'man pushing the auger up' was superb, but hardly as realistic as when he told of the ignition of the gas when his brother went to light his pipe. Then he told me that they shoveled in about six feet of dirt the next morning, but the gas kept on burning, shooting the earth up in the air with the flame."

Mr. Beddard also states that the people of Mundare and the whole district are intensely excited, which would be a very natural way for them to be. In addition to the syndicate which has been formed by several Edmonton men, one has also been organized at Vegreville, which is the second station east of Mundare on the main line of the Canadian Northern.

The local syndicate has blanketed more than 1,000 acres, and it is estimated that even if no oil exists at all underneath the gas, the gas itself is present in such enormous qualities that the company can supply that commodity to the city, for light, heat and power, at rates which will solve the much-discussed question of power and enable the city to compete with such centers as Calgary and Winnipeg for manufactories.

Water Impregnated With Oil.

As a matter of fact, however, many of the farmers in the vicinity find difficulty in getting wells dug in places where they can use the water for drinking purposes, so heavily impregnated is it with crude oil. Mr. Beddard says that he did not believe this himself, till he saw the situation with his own eyes. The water from one well contained oil to such an extent that the odor was very pronounced.

The syndicate at the present moment has a geologist looking over the ground and he states that he believes, from the formation of the earth in the district and from the indications he has so far encountered, that a greater oil field exists there than in the Calgary-Okotoks district.

Nearer Than Viking.

Mundare is located on the main line of the Canadian Northern, about 80 miles east of the city. If gas is pumped from there to Edmonton it will not have as great a distance to come as that from Viking, where the Edmonton industrial association is now drilling.

It is becoming apparent more and more every day that the discovery of oil near Calgary was at least the means of inducing people in all parts of the province to really take some interest in the resources of their own districts. It is believed that the Mundare district, as far as the absolute presence of gas or oil is concerned, is a more promising field in close proximity to Edmonton, than any yet brought to the notice of the public.

"SOJER BOYS" LEAVE FOR ENGAGEMENT AT CALGARY TWO WEEKS

The 101st regiment left by special train over the Canadian Pacific for the annual two-weeks encampment at Calgary last evening. The train pulled out of the north side depot at 10 o'clock, with the men and officers of "A" squadron, under the command of Lieutenant-Colonel F. C. Jamieson.

At the south side depot "B" squdron was picked up, and the train altogether had 327 officers and men. "C" squadron, also part of the 101st, is recruited from Vermilion, Vegreville, Fort Saskatchewan, Viking and Holden, and went south last night over the Canadian Northern, via Vegreville and Camrose.

The 103rd regiment will not leave the city for the Calgary camp until Saturday night next.

being run by Japs. The day after he informed Seymour the people moved out of the house.

Why didn't you inspect the house?—I dont know. We made observations from the lady's house who made the complaint. We sat and watched it. Detective Fryant remained outside.

You saw men going in and out?—Yes; this house was being run as a rooming house.

What conclusion did you come to?—No conclusion. I saw nothing which would show you it was a disorderly house. Inspector Seymour next day informed him that he had told the people to move.

What was generally done when complaints came in?—The owner of the house was told to move out.

Any instructions as to where they were to move?—No.

Who gave instructions?—Inspector Seymour.

Permitted the Business.

On another occasion witness said he visited a house on Athabasca, near the Western garage. The people in the house were French. Witness did not speak French and Seymour told them he had instructed them to move out. On another occasion they went to premises now occupied by the Douglas club, on the corner of Fraser and the C.N.R. tracks. Seymour told the landlady of complaints being received and said she must move out. She said, "all right." She also spoke of just having paid her rent and said she would be out of all that. Seymour said he couldn't help that.

You were not concerned as to the business she was carrying on?—I had no orders.

You had orders as to what you were not to be concerned about?—Yes. Seymour told me the houses were not to be raided.

You knew these people were guilty of an offence under the criminal law?—Yes.

Any other instructions?—I was told that other offences would be dealt with ordinarily.

You were told you were not to prosecute these places?—Yes.

Did you ever see a woman out of town?—It has come under my jurisdiction to see women off on the train when they had been ordered out of town.

Did you ever see them back again?—Yes.

Asked to be Moved.

Did you ever request to be taken off the morality department?—I did.

When?—Three or four weeks before the dismissal of Chief Lancey.

Why?—Because there were so many disorderly houses in town and I could not do anything. I thought it was useless being there.

Who did you speak to?—Captain Charles Lancey. In two days I was moved to the criminal department.

Justice Scott:—Did you tell Captain Lancey why you wished to be changed?

Witness:—No. Chief Lancey told me when I went on there that I could go on for two or three weeks to assist in cleaning up the city.

Jarred by Orders

Mr. Ewing: You attempted to clean up the city?—

We went out and picked up a few street walkers and solicitors.

Why did you not do more?

Because I had the instructions from Seymour the first night.

You were employed to clean up the city and were prevented by your instructions from cleaning it up?

Yes.

Were the houses numerous?

Yes, I am sure there were over 50.

Witness told of some of the houses, one opposite the Pendennis, one over the Namayo Wine Liquor store. Most of the rooming houses in town were frequented by this class of people," he said. "There was one on Kinistino north of the Savoy hotel—Billy Morton's; another between Clara and Boyle run by Carmen Daly and one on the opposite side of the street.

"There are houses kept by landladies who allow men and women to go and occupy the rooms."

Woman Not Charged

Two of the houses on Kinistino were raided under Seymour, but the houses were allowed to run afterwards. One woman was dismissed because she had been arrested before 12 o'clock at night and not charged before noon next day. Chief Lancey let her go. The woman was named Lucy Hunt. In the other case the keeper and inmates were fined.

What did they do afterwards?

Went back into the house again and started business.

How far are these places located from the central police station?

One is two blocks east and one block north.

Give us the names of some of the rooming houses run in this way?

The National rooming house on Kinistino. One or two couples were taken out of that house. Repeatedly we have brought in the same women for soliciting and taking men to rooming houses.

Have you had conversations with anyone as to the evidence you should give before this inquiry?

No.

Were any suggestions made to you? No, none whatever.

Alderman Clarke asked witness who was chief when he joined the force and he said Chief Elsor.

You did not then undertake the prosecution?

No.

You always gave information to your superior—under Campbell as under Seymour?

Yes.

You would not have any jurisdiction in regard to immorality while you were in the criminal department under Simpson?

Oh yes, we were always expected to make a report.

In three years in the force have you had to take orders except from the chief or your superior officer?

We always attended to complaints if there was no one else there.

Did you ever take any orders, direct or indirect from an alderman of the city?

No.

All your work has been performed under the police authorities mentioned?

Yes.

No Warrants taken

Witness stated that he thought it was a house of prostitution generally during the whole of 1913—off and on. The house was closed recently.

In answer to Mr. Bown, solicitor for the city, witness said that there was scarcely ever a warrant taken out before houses were raided.

Are you sure that was why Lucy Hunt was dicharged?

That was what was told to me.

In reply to Mr. Ewing the witness stated that the evidence would have disappeared if they went to get a warrant. The raids were usually made during the night.

Regarding the raid at the Opus club, witness said that some of the men arrested were ordered to get out of town. Others who gave a satisfactory account of themselves were let go.

Alderman Clarke: Was it a connection with this club that money was lost from the police station?

I don't know.

At this stage a protest was made by Alderman Clarke which led to a general explanation on his part and a reply by Mr. Biggar and Mr. Ewing.

Asked Protection Money

During the time you had the house one or two complaints were made?—I was arrested once for women being there.

It was quite a big house and women of a questionable character occasionally got in?—The police said there were women there.

Later complaint was made against you that the house was disorderly and you were convicted notwithstanding the fact that you said you had done your best to prevent these people going there?—Yes.

Was there any conversation with any person about paying protection?—There was no official—At the time I was fined I was told the thing could be squared provided I came through with $200.

Who was that?—It was Oro West.

Where did he live?—He lived west of here. I was there once.

"Straight to Massie."

What was said?—He showed me a man whom he said would square it. He said the money would go straight to Massie.

West said that his wife, Fay West, said that she had been to his house with other men. Witness did not believe it. I told West that I could not see that this thing was right and it would cost me as much one way as the other.

Did you pay anybody?—No.

You complained that some one double crossed you?—I thought I had been unfairly convicted.

Did you pay anything except your fine and your lawyer?—To nobody.

Did you have any talk to any one else about getting off by payment? I told my lawyer what had happened.

Witness Reluctant.

Do you remember saying to policeman who served you with subpoena that it was pretty hard luck to be arrested so soon after you had paid the money?—Witness merely smiled, but when pressed said: There were lots of things said on the street that he would not say here. (Laughter.)

Witness: I have told you all I know.

Mr. Biggar asked that Constable Ward should be called, or Mrs. Jack Sutter.

Ward was not present but Mrs. Sutter was called into the box.

Mr. Biggar: Do you remember an occasion when you went to 401 Clark street after you had sold the furniture?—Yes, in May.

Witness added: It was exactly a month after I sold out. I stayed there that night.

"Lancey is Shaking"

Did any member of the force come in there that night?

Witness: Seymour and Moore.

Together or separately?—Separately. Seymour first.

When did he come?—As soon as Lancey was dismissed.

How did you know that it was as soon as Lancey was dismissed?—He said Lancey's dismissed. He is shaking like a leaf. This came as an awful surprise to all of us.

What else?—He told them to close up the house.

Did he say why?—I guess they knew.

Under Compulsion.

Witness gave her evidence with a great deal of reluctance and on being pressed she blurted it out as though she disliked to give the information except under compulsion. Seymour was in a great hurry and he spoke to the woman who had taken the house.

To whom else was he speaking?—There were just the two ladies and myself there. I was in the room next to the office.

Was Seymour's remark made in the office?—At the office door.

How much later was it when Moore came?—Ten or 15 minutes. He asked for the landlady.

What did Moore say?—She said that Lancey had told her Lancey had been dismissed and to close up the house. She told me that immediately after.

What was done?—I went to bed then; I don't know anything more.

Deputy Chief Wright.

Samuel Wright, deputy chief of police, was next called. He stated that Commissioner Booth ordered him to see the play "Truth" at Pantages. Witness went to the theater and saw Mr. Gill, and told him his mission. He watched the play and went to the office. Then he called Mr. Chadwick. He asked Mr. Chadwick what he thought of it. Mr. Chadwick replied: "I think that much about it that I am sending my wife home tonight." Witness asked if it would be all right for him to report to Commissioner Booth that the play was all right. Mr. Chadwick said "certainly."

Subsequently he went to Mr. Gill and asked him for the loan of $25, which was given to him there and then. He had since paid it back. There was no check made out. Mr. Gill put a slip of paper in the drawer.

If he said subsequently that you made the statement that you said "You can't catch me like that; I am too old a bird," he was making that statement out of whole cloth?—I never entered into any conversation with Mr. Gill like that.

When did you say it back?—Ten days or two weeks.

If Mr. Gill made the statement a month afterwards that the money was not a loan, but a gift, that would be untrue?—Certainly. I don't think Mr. Gill would say that. It is a mis-statement.

"Might Tell a Lot"

Mr. Biggar: There were instructions issued that the houses should not be interfered with?

My instructions were to let the houses run as long as there were no complaints, not to pull them, but as soon as there were any complaints, make them move out of the district.

Did you not go further in a conversation?

Not to Mr. Lancey.

Who then?

I had no other person in mind.

Mr. Biggar insisted, whereupon Wright fenced, stating, "If you will tell me what you are drifting at I might tell you a whole lot."

Mr. Biggar: Tell us what you know.

Wright: Tell me what you want to know.

Witness Admonished

Justice Scott admonished the witness stating: "If you know anything pertaining to this inquiry, give it."

Wright: All right.

Mr. Biggar: Did you complain to Lancey that this thing could not go on?

Yes, and he told me he was sick of it and he had amind to resign. I had a mind to resign too.

Mr. Lancey said: "His hands were tied." It came through my own wife who said she would rather not go out for fear of being classed with certain women.

Is it a good fit for a woman to be on the street?

I would not go as far as that. I've been on the streets and no one ever stopped me.

Mr. Biggar: I am attarcted by your statement that you might tell me a whole lot if I asked you in the right way?

I should be glad if you would give me the information as to what direction those inquiries ought to take.

Witness: I will give any information I can in my own way.

What Aldermen Did

In reply to Alderman Clarke, witness said names had been given to him by Alderman Clarke of undesirables whom he wanted to be driven out.

Has any alderman ever used his office to assume any authority over you?

Not, except as to men getting on the force. There were men in a number of those instances; the last was in regard to Constable Wood, who was dismissed and taken back.

In reply to Mr. Biggar he said Alderman Clark had told him of several undesirable characters. One of the men was seen and he proved he was a bartender in regular employment.

At this stage the court adjourned for lunch.

ALBERTA ATTORNEY GENERAL OPPOSES DOMINION OFFICIAL

London, June 16.—Fourteen appeals from Canada are before the privy council this term. Amongst the more important cases is that of Halifax City versus Nova Scotia Car Works, the respondents claiming exemption from taxation regarding sewer construction.

The dominion attorney-general, and the Alberta attorney-general oppose one another before the council over the reference to the supreme court by the governor-general concerning the Alberta Railway Amendments act.

The dominion attorney-general intervenes in the litigation wherein the John Deere Plow company is appellant, raising the point as to whether certain provisions of the British Columbia companies act are ultra vires. Other appeals are Wills versus Central railway, and Coates versus Sovereign bank. Several important judgments are ready for delivery, including the Quebec Marriage case; Vancouver Railway Bridges cases and Railway Boards power over joint freight rates between Canada and the United States.

The privy council today dismissed two British Columbia appeals—B. C. Electric versus Gentile; and United Buildings versus Vancouver City.

The Man Who Brought World Fame to Calgary

There are inherent in some men combined qualities of foresight and tenacity which amount to genius. W. S. Herron is one of those men. When almost all the world was skeptical on Calgary oil he stood at the head of those who doggedly held the fort. He spent $40,000 of his own money before the first great well was completed. Now that the wealth-giving fluid has come and made him a multi-millionaire, his fellowmen are glad to yield him leadership.

It is of such material that the Directorate of

CALGARY - ALBERTA PETROLEUM CO., LIMITED

(NON-PERSONAL LIABILITY)

is formed, W. S. Herron and his associate W. A. Elder, Oil Experts; W. H. Berkinshaw, President Calgary Board of Trade, E. A. Cunningham, Director, Rogers Cunningham Lumber Co., Ltd. Former President Lethbridge Board of Trade and E. N. Crandall, Capitalist.

Mr. Herron has personally selected every acre now under lease, and 7,000 additional acres will be acquired under his able supervision.

With such men behind it, with ample means at its command, with choicest of oil leases covering the best parts of the field, so that no well can come in without benefitting it; with a drilling rig ready to set up and put to work at once, with every possible condition in its favor, the Calgary Alberta Petroleum Co.'s complete success is assured from the start.

Just now the price of stock is low. The timid investor is waiting for another well to become a producer. The wise investor will see in this his chance to buy at 50c shares which may jump to $1.00 any day. The stock in this, the biggest, strongest company in the field will never go begging.

The men who have made vast fortunes are those who have invested. Fill out the coupon (writing your name and address plainly in pencil) and bring or send it in TODAY with your order for shares. Then later on when the next big strike comes you can sit back and smile at those timid souls who would not take a chance "while the taking was good." Do it now!

PUTS MILITARISM FIRST.

A remarkable doctrine was preached in the House of Commons by Premier Borden's military-mad Minister of Militia, Colonel Sam Hughes. "No technical education," he declared, as reported in Universal Hansard, "can possibly approach the benefit that is being given to the people through these drill halls" (erected by the Militia Department.)

The Minister's astounding declaration was made in response to a suggestion put forward by Mr. Hugh Guthrie, the Liberal member for South Wellington, Ontario that several millions of the huge sum which Colonel Hughes proposes to spend this year for military purposes would be put to better use if it were devoted to furthering technical education throughout Canada. As was pointed out by Mr. Guthrie, a thorough investigation of the question of technical training has been made by a Royal Commission appointed by the late Liberal Government. That commission presented its report to the Borden Ministry and recommended an annual outlay of $3,000,000 for ten years upon technical education. Mr. Borden and his colleagues have pigeon-holed that report, despite the evident soundness of the commission's findings and the certain benefit which would accrue to Canada from technical education. They have pigeon-holed the report, and instead they allow Colonel Hughes to squander millions on drill halls and armories, gold-braided headquarters' staffs, private car trips across Canada, junketting tours to Europe for himself and his friends. Faced by the Liberal contention that Canada would be better served if some of the enormous outlays on unproductive military works were used for advancing technical education, Colonel Hughes sneers at the education idea and insults the intelligence of the people of the Dominion by declaring that "no technical education can possibly approach the benefit that is being given to the people through these drill halls."

The Royal Commission pointed out some of the many benefits which technical education would bring to Canada.

Through evidence gained by first hand investigation, the commissioners showed the great advantages which technical education has brought to other countries. Labor and educational organizations throughout Canada have urged upon the Government the adoption of a vigorous policy for the encouragement and assistance of such education in Canada. Manufacturers have taken a similar position.

But the Government does nothing. It is deaf to the urgings of those who see the gain which technical education would bring. Instead it spends millions on millions to give effect to the militaristic ideas of Colonel Hughes and many more millions on unnecessary and useless undertakings. Faced with the demand for action to further technical education, Colonel Hughes sneers and declares that it is not education but drill halls which Canada needs. And Premier Borden, sitting by, has not a word to say in criticism of the declarations of his Minister. The responsibility rests, then, not upon Colonel Hughes alone but upon the Premier and every member of the Government.

NICE LITTLE "DEAL."

The story of Bonnie Bel-air is the story of a deal by which Mr. W. T. Rodden, of Montreal, made a profit of many thousands by doing business with the Borden Government. It is a story which should be very satisfactory to Mr. Rodden but scarcely so satisfactory to the people of Canada.

Part of the story leaked out some time ago. The rest was told at a meeting of the Public Accounts Committee of the Commons.

The Bonnie Bel-air property lies not far from Montreal. The Bonnie Bel-air block proper, consisting of 80 acres, was purchased by Mr. Rodden in May, 1911, for $48,500. In the spring of the following year, he purchased an adjoining property, the McIntyre farm, which was 70 acres in size, for $36,496 and another two acre lot for $5,000. The purchases were not cash transactions, not by a good deal, for the cash payment was small and the time for completing payments ran as far ahead as 1915. As a matter of fact, he did not pay one single dollar to the McIntyre estate until after he was paid for the property by the Dominion Government.

Mr. Rodden sold the property to the Militia Department in the spring of 1912, for cash. He had negotiated for the purchase of the three lots for a total of $89,996, payable on long terms, and he sold it to an obliging Government, through Hon. Sam Hughes, for $180,000 hard cash. Testifying under oath before the Public Accounts committee, Mr. Rodden himself admitted that not a dollar had been paid the McIntyre people until after he received his fine fat profit from the Government. It was a very pretty transaction from the Rodden point of view.

On the witness stand, Mr. Rodden could not remember whether or not he had "arranged" with another Montreal man to have an offer made for the property just before it was sold to the Government. He could not remember in what bank he had placed the proceeds of the $180,000 cash sale, though he said that the money went to his personal use.

Another interesting feature in connection with the investigation was supplied by the attitude of Hon. Sam Hughes, the Minister through whose department the "deal" was made. Throughout the enquiry the Minister was persistent in breaking in with interruptions when pointed questions were asked by members of the committee. It was not because of any assistance from Colonel Hughes that the story was told.

But nothing can wipe out the main facts of the case. Mr. Rodden purchased for $89,500 on long terms, a piece of property which the Borden Government bought from him a year later for $180,000 cash. The Government has obtained for military purposes a piece of ground which is so low that it is liable to be flooded every year and the Government's friend, Mr. Rodden, has obtained a profit of $90,000 after holding the property for only twelve months.

Mr. Rodden makes the money and the people of Canada pay the piper.

The Adventures of Kathlyn

By Harold MacGrath.

SYNOPSIS OF PREVIOUS CHAPTERS.

Kathlyn Hare, believing her father, Col. Hare, in peril, has summoned her, leaves her home in California to go to him in Alaska, India. Umballah, pretender to the throne of that principality, has imprisoned the colonel, named by the late King as his heir, because he fears the American may insist on his royal rights. Upon her arrival in Alaska Kathlyn is informed by Umballah that her father is dead and that she is the queen. An elaborate durbar is arranged, the central figure of which is Kathlyn, protesting and grief (stricken. When the crown is placed upon her head Umballah announces that she is to be married to him forthwith. Her refusal infuriates him, but as Kathlyn's beauty and spirit have made a strong appeal to the people he yields the point for the time being. A priest announces that no woman may rule unmarried, but because the young queen is not conversant with the laws of the state she will be given seven days to decide.

When Kathlyn reiterates, at the expiration of the week of grace, her refusal to marry Umballah she receives sentence from the supreme tribunal that she is to undergo two ordeals with wild beasts. If she survives she is to be permitted to rule without hindrance.

Through the pluck and resourcefulness of John Bruce, an American and fellow passenger on the boat which brought Kathlyn to Alaska, and who has come to her assistance, she escapes unharmed from the two ordeals. With Bruce she flees from Alaba. The elephant which carries her becomes frightened and runs away, separating her from Bruce and the rest of the party.

After a ride filled with peril she takes refuge in a ruined temple. The holy men and villagers, believing her to be an ancient priestess risen from the tomb, allow her to remain as the guardian of the sacred fire. But Kathlyn's haven is also the abode of a lion, and she is forced to flee from it with the savage beast in pursuit. She escapes and finds a retreat in the jungle, only to fall into the hands of a band of slave traders, who bring her to Allaha in the public mart. She is sold to Umballah, who, finding her still unsubmissive, throws her into the dungeon with her father.

Bruce and his friends effect the release of Kathlyn and the colonel. Umballah's attempt to recapture them is unsuccessful, and the fugitives are given shelter in the palace of Bala Khan. The same night the sacred white elephant, the khan's most prized possession, is stolen.

Supplied with camels and servants by that hospitable prince, they start on their journey to the coast. The party is overpowered and taken in custody by brigands. The leader, recognizing the colonel, dictates Ramabai and Pandita to Allaha for Parsein for the white king, his daughter and Bruce. Umballah journeys to the lair of the bandits. The colonel is delivered to him and he orders that Kathlyn and Bruce be killed.

The photo-dramas corresponding to the instalments of "The Adventures of Kathlyn" may be seen at the Empress Theater. By this unique arrangement with the Selig Polyscope Company it is, therefore, possible not only to read "The Adventures of Kathlyn" in this paper, but also to keep pace with each instalment of it at the theater.

CHAPTER XIV.

The Garden of Brides.

From the four ends of the principality they came, the veiled candidates; from the north, the east, the south and the west. They came in marvelous palanquins, in curtained howdahs, on camels, in splendid bullock carts. Many a rupee resolved itself into new-bought finery, upon the vague chance of getting it back with compound interest.

What was the most unusual, they came without pedigree or dowry, this being Ramabai's idea; though in truth, Umballah objected at first to the lack of dowry. He had expected to inherit this dowry. He gave way to Ramabai because he did not care to have Ramabai suspect what his inner thoughts were. Let the fool Ramabai pick out his chestnuts for him. Umballah laughed in his voluminous sleeve.

Some one of these matrimonially inclined houris the colonel would have to select; if he refused, then should Ramabai do the selecting. More, he would marry the fortunate sultana by proxy. There was no possible loophole for the colonel.

The populace was charmed, enchanted, as it always is over a new excitement. Much as they individually despised Umballah, collectively they admired his ingenuity in devising fresh amusements. Extra feast days came one after another. The oriental dislikes work; and anyone who could invent means of avoiding it was worthy of gratitude. So, then, the populace fell in with Umballah's scheme agreeably. The thang and betel and toddy sellers did a fine business during the festival of Rama.

There was merrymaking in the streets, day and night. The temples and mosques were filled to overflowing. Musicians with reeds and tomtoms paraded the bazaars. In nearly every square the Nautch girl danced, or the juggler piled his trade, or there was a mon-goose-cobra fight (the cobra, of course, bereft of its fangs), and fakirs grew mango trees out of nothing. There was a flurry in the slave mart, too.

The troops swaggered about, overbearing. They were soon to get their pay. The gold and silver were rotting in the treasury. Why leave it there since gold and silver were minted to be spent?

There were elephant fights in the reconstructed arena; tigers attacked wild boars, who fought with enormous razorlike tusks, as swift and deadly as any Malay kris. The half forgotten ceremony of feeding the wild pig before sundown each day was given life again. And drove after drove came in from the jungles for the grain, which was distributed from a platform. And wild cocks fought with the pigs. A wonderful sight it was to see several thousand pigs come trotting in, each drove headed by its fighting boar. When the old fellows met there was carnage; squealing and grunting, they fought. The peacocks shrilled and hopped from back to back for such grain as fell upon the bristly backs of the pigs. Here and there a white peacock would be snared, or a boar whose tusks promised a battle royal with some leopard or tiger.

UNION OF SMALL EUROPEAN NATIONS UNDER NEGOTIATION

Berlin, June 16.—From a well-informed quarter the correspondent learned that diplomatic negotiations are actively on foot between the governments of Holland, Switzerland, Denmark and Sweden for the formation of a "union of the small nations of Europe."

The object of the union is to preserve the effective neutrality of the constituent states and to unite their military and naval forces for common action in the event of any one of them being attacked by a great power.

Holland was about to arrange for the construction of five dreadnoughts in anticipation of the forthcoming union, but has deferred action pending a settlement of the question raised by Sir Percy Scott as to whether dreadnoughts are not now obsolete.

DENIES HE PAID SAM WRIGHT TO ALLOW "TRUTH"

Chas. Gill, Manager of Pantages, Tells of Loan to Deputy Chief Police

R. B. CHADWICK CALLED REGARD TO CENSORING

Statements Were Made Endeavoring to Incriminate Him About Bribery.

Following the evidence given in camera yesterday afternoon at the police inquiry, relative to charges of white slavery, Charles Gill, manager of the Pantages theater, was recalled and examined regarding statements about a check in connection with a loan to Deputy Chief Wright. He admitted having drawn a check, but said that it was to reimburse him temporarily for the loan of money to Wright. The latter told him that he would rather have cash than a check. He denied that he afterwards stated that Wright had said when he offered him a check: "You can't catch me; I am too old a bird for that."

Mr. Biggar: Has your recollection improved regarding the check?—Witness: I thought you said to Sam Wright. I drew a check myself.

Mr. Biggar read the check produced by Gill and stated that it was marked April 27.—It was drawn on the Pantages theater account by C. L. Gill, and was paid at the bank of B.N.A.

Asked regarding an interview with J. D. Hunt, deputy attorney-general, witness said that he remembered this.

Do you remember Wright saying when he asked for money that "You can't come anything like that on me, I am too old a bird for that?"—I don't recollect that.

Do you remember telling Mr. Hunt that?—I don't recollect. Mr. Hunt can be called.

Witness added that when Wright asked for a loan witness told him that he could not use the theater funds for that purpose and he would have to give it out of his own funds.

Rather Have Cash.

Do you not remember Wright saying anything like I suggested?—Wright laughed when I offered him the check and said he would rather have the cash.

He was then aware of the impropriety of the transaction?—You can put it that way.

The theater paid the check?—Yes; as an advance on my salary.

Did you tell Mr. Zorab that if you told the exact facts about this transaction that it would cost you your job?—I don't remember saying that.

It is only a few hours ago?—I didn't say that.

Important Conversation.

Do you remember saying that someone was trying to get Mr. Chadwick in wrong for taking money relative to "Truth," and that you had had to give Wright money?—I didn't put it that strong.

Witness: I told Mr. Hunt, who asked about Mr. Chadwick, saying that there was some suspicion on Mr. Chadwick, that Mr. Chadwick had always been straightforward with him. There was some question about a picture which a woman had objected to and I asked Mr. Chadwick to see it. I told Mr. Chadwick he would confer a favor on me by letting the picture run if possible. Mr. Chadwick said: "If the picture is all right it will run; if it isn't it won't." He afterwards related the incident to Mr. Chadwick.

Mr. Biggar: With the exception that you said Wright had arranged for the picture to run and that you had given him $25—I didn't say I had given it to him except as a loan.

And you have not got a scratch of a pen to show that you got that $25 back from Wright?—It was not necessary.

Mr. Biggar: And after what you said this morning you wish us to take your word for that?—Yes.

Mr. Gill then left the box at four o'clock.

Secretary Budds of the police department gave evidence as to correspondence with the commissioners received by the department. Witness, in answer to Mr. Clarke, said that in 1912 he had relieved his brother, who went east to run.

You had no knowledge of what happened in 1912?—No.

R. B. Chadwick, superintendent of neglected children, was then called. He said he had occupied his position for seven years. He had a talk with Chas. Gill regarding the play, "Truth," at the Pantages theater. That was about April 14 or 15. Witness was there about a moving picture film, he being censor of moving pictures for the province.

Gill told him of a statement made that he had accepted money from Wright with regard to passing the play "Truth." Witness told Gill that their would be impossible, as he had nothing to do with the passing of vaudeville plays. Commissioner Booth asked him to look at it and he consented to do as a personal opinion. He did so, and sent his views in writing to Commissioner Booth and also to Gill. He said in the letter that handled as the play was he could see no possible objection.

Mr. Gill told him that he had paid $25 to Wright and he showed witness a stub attachment of a check for $25 paid out to Chas. Gill, as petty cash.

Gill said that Wright had made the statement that "it was pretty near time that Pantages was paying some of his expenses." Gill said he could not give the money out of the theater funds, but that he gave it out of his pocket. Witness remarked that a man who would sell out for $25 was pretty cheap. Witness was not present with Wright to see the play, as had been said in the newspaper.

At this stage the court adjourned till today.

COMPLETELY BROKEN DOWN

Another Lady Thinks "Fruit-a-tives" Greatest Tonic In The World.

HAGERSVILLE, ONT., Aug. 26th. 1913.

I can highly recommend "Fruit-a-tives" because they did me an awful lot of good. About four years ago, I commenced taking "Fruit-a-tives" for a general break-down and they did me a world of good. We bought a good many dollars' worth, but they did all that your advertising claims for them, and as I said before, I cannot speak too highly for them. Their action is so pleasant, compared with other medicines, that I am glad to say so and I trust that some other woman may start taking "Fruit-a-tives" for I know the results will be all that you claim".

MRS. W. N. KELLY.

Home Wrinkle Recipe—Astonishing Results

Such startling, sensational results come from a very simple, harmless home-made wrinkle-remover, there's no excuse now for anyone wearing those hateful marks of age, illness or worry. No need fooling with worthless pastes, creams, nor "external foods" which don't feed the skin. No need rubbing, massaging, steaming—senseless methods which expand and loosen skin and underlying tissue, aggravating a wrinkled, flabby condition. Better, subtler, surer, is the scientific saxolite formula. Thousands have successfully tried it—thousands freed of wrinkles, enlarged pores, saggy cheeks, double chin—thousands younger looking, happier!

All you need do is to dissolve one ounce of powdered saxolite in one-half pint witch hazel, and bathe your face in this. The effect is almost magical. Even deepest crow's feet completely, quickly vanish, skin becomes firm, smooth, fresh looking—heart no trace of treatment except enhanced beauty. Get these inexpensive ingredients at your druggist's, try this marvelous saxolite lotion today.

Y.W.C.A. IS OFF TO A GOOD START.

Latest news received from the headquarters of the "Help the Girls" campaign indicate in no uncertain manner that the hopes of its most sanguine supporters are about to be realized.

Martin Runnals, who is acting as secretary of the campaign, and who has kindly allowed his offices, opposite the Hudson's Bay stores, to be used as committee headquarters stated that reports received from the various canvassers are most encouraging. There is, however, still lots more work to be done and all who are interested in the success of the campaign and who can give a little time for the cause are requested to call at the office, 140 Jasper avenue west, where work will be allotted to them. Do it now. Phone 1654.

Conversat at Mount Royal, Calgary.

The ways for the young people in Calgary and many of their elders as well led many Saturday night to Mount Royal where the annual conversazione of the college took place.

There was an unusually large attendance and the evening was one of the most enjoyable in the record of that institution taking the form of a promenade.

The large reception rooms were brightly and prettily decorated with cut flowers and greenery and the guests were received by Dr. and Mrs. Kerby, the latter in golden brown mesaline trimmed with lace and tulle, and Hon. W. H. Cushing and members of the staff.

WORLD CHAMPION BAG PUNCHER AT EMPIRE THEATER

Many of the world's most successful men and women in all the walks of life have had to struggle against great odds. It is said that Col. Roosevelt and Sir Wilfrid Laurier were pale-faced weaklings when young men, but far be it from such with colonel today and, as for Wilf, he's over 70 and never went as strong as right now.

It is probable that even those two notables, however, did not have to fight their own mothers in their battles for success, as did Harry Seeback, the world's champion bag puncher. Harry is appearing in Orpheum vaudeville at the Empire the first half of this week and loves to tell of "the days of real sport," when his father would assist him out to the boxing clubs in Brooklyn, his home, after which his mother would promptly have him brought back.

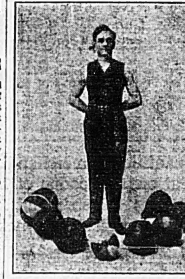

Harry got started, however, about 15 years ago, and has been punching bags ever since. Now he has so many medals he carries them round in a box. Among them is one given by Richard K. Fox, which he won three years in succession and consequently secured permanent possession of it. Then there are 10 medals given by the Police Gazette—one each year from 1905 to 1914, every year won by Seelback, a most remarkable record in the realms of sport.

Seeback is essentially an athlete as opposed to an actor, though his act, in which he is assisted by his pretty, healthy wife, is undoubtedly the best of its kind that was ever sent over the Orpheum circuit. He must punch bags in his sleep, as he punched them upside down and almost every other conceivable way on the Empire stage last night, concluding with punching no less than 14 at one and the same time.

Mr. and Mrs. Seeback are enthusiasts on bag punching as a means of gaining, regaining or retaining health and graceful beauty. "Not only physically, but mentally, does this sport aid men and women, according to the Seebacks. "It makes one think and act quickly," said the bag punching wizard, after the show last evening. "It also makes fast, pliant muscles, and, as a nerve restorer and tonic for the tired business man, it beats musical comedy a block. It is also the very best thing in the world for growing boys, because it exercises and develops the proper muscles and does not harm any others, such as the heart."

Hundred Years Old

Snelgrove, Ont., June 16.—James Graham, of the township, celebrated the hundredth anniversary of his birth. Last night the residents of the community paid their respects. His splendid health has enabled him until recently to attend an Orange walk every year.

World's Champion Bag Puncher, with Mrs. Seebach, at the Empire today and tomorrow.

STRONG BILL OF HEADLINERS THIS WEEK AT PANTAGES

The usual high class bill is on at the Pantages this week. In fact, a number of items on the program are quite extravagant and above the ordinary. The bill opens with an exceptionally daring aerial act that thrills and pleases everybody. They are the Three Flying Kays, and their act is spectacular, high class and also amusing, and some of their stunts have not been seen here before.

Styled as a combination of melody, personality and grace, Miss Louise De Foele presents a varied combination of entertainment, and proves beyond a doubt that she possesses grace and charm, a fairly good voice and an ability to impersonate and dance. Her appearance in such a varied assortment of chic costumes and regalia, adds considerable class to the number, and a few of her songs were entirely original and pleasing.

Miss Julia Ring and company appear in one of the neatest little sketches seen here in a long time. It is called "The Man She Met," and the trio furnish 20 minutes of gay laughter and amusement. The setting of the skit is in a popular New York cafe, and all the settings and surroundings are well carried out in that effect. There is good humor all the way through the piece and the fresh, breezy patter of Miss Ring and gentleman, are delightful. The act took well with last evening's audience, mostly because it is a little bit better than the average.

But to May and Kilduff must go the palm for having brought the most laughs out of the crowd. Their turn is a rube comedy called "A Limb of the Law," and it is funny from start to finish. The two characters are typical and they make a big hit.

The program is closed with what is undoubtedly an exceptionally good presentation of the well-known dramatic piece, "Under Two Flags." It is presented by Miss Jessie Shirley and company, and in these eyes it is produced most successfully. Miss Shirley is supported by a strong caste and this well-known story of love and war, with Cigarette as the center attraction, is beautifully staged. Some splendid scenery is used and the entire setting is unique. The company of troopers is augmented considerably by the addition of several local stage aspirants.

Health and Beauty Hints Answers

BY MRS. MAE MARTYN.

Mrs. A. T. B.—You are not shampooing often enough and may not use the best shampoo. Try my favorite, which is centhrox—just dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water and rub briskly as you pour it on the hair and scalp. This makes an abundance of rich, cleansing lather that is very soothing to tender, itchy scalps. Rinsing leaves the scalp immaculately clean, and each strand of hair will be soft, shimmery and full of health. Canthrox shampoos are splendid for correcting unnatural conditions, such as excessive oiliness, dryness or profuse dandruff. I like its drying qualities too.

Mrs. G.—The symptoms you describe, pains and aches in the limbs and small of back, loss of appetite, lack of strength and ambition are danger signals—warnings your blood is laden with poisons which will cause serious sickness if not eliminated from the system. The kardene tonic of grandmother's day is excellent to use and can be prepared at home at little cost by dissolving ½ cupful sugar and 1 ounce kerdene (which you can get at your drug store) in ½ pint alcohol (not whisky) to which is then added hot water to make a full quart. A tablespoonful before meals is the dose. The timely use of this tonic frequently saves serious ills.

MAZIE—Yes, you can cure your weak, watery eyes with a soothing, healing, strengthening eye tonic which can be made at little cost by dissolving an ounce of crystos in 1 pint clear water. If you will put 2 or 3 drops in each eye daily, it will relieve the inflammation and soreness and reduce swelling. This crystos tonic is especially fine to make the eyes sparkle and give them expression.

SOCIETY GIRL—Here is that weight-reducing treatment which she told you would work without danger or inconvenience. Put 4 ounces parnotis (which you can obtain at any drug store) in 1¾ pints hot water, strain when cold, take 1 tablespoonful before meals. Keep up treatment until weight is sufficiently reduced. Parnotis is gentle in action and positive in results and leaves the flesh and skin firm and smooth.

GIRLIE—It is easy to make an inexpensive hair tonic at home by mixing 1 ounce quinozin with ½ pint alcohol, then adding ½ pint water. The scalp should be massaged once or twice a week with this quinozin tonic. Its regular use will quickly banish the dry, scaly condition and correct excessive oiliness, and when this is done the natural color and silky softness returns and the hair will grow in long and thick and have a beautiful sheen.

MARGE—Friends tell me I have every reason to be proud of my complexion, which is the result of discarding powder and using spurmax lotion. This is inexpensive and easily made at home—I just dissolve 4 ounces spurmax in ½ pint witch hazel or hot water, then add 2 teaspoonfuls glycerine, and it is ready. I apply this lotion sparingly and rub lightly for a moment until it dries and seems to become a part of the skin, to which it gives a velvety smoothness and refined color that is delightful.

O. T.—The wrinkles of which you speak will soon vanish if you apply a plain almozoin cream-jelly and massage the long way of the creases. This simple treatment tends to vivify the dormant tissues, causing the creases or lines to fill out. To prepare the cream-jelly, put 1 ounce almozoin (which you can get at your drug store) in ½ pint water and add 2 teaspoonfuls glycerine. Let remain over night before using. As a skin-cleanser and beautifier this greaseless cream-jelly is not equaled.

BOTH GAMES YESTERDAY WERE TERRIBLE AFFAIRS, AND THE ESKIMOS LOSE TWICE

Scores Were, Afternoon 17 to 15 and in Evening 13 to 4—Wonderful "Exhibitions" of Our Summer Pastime—Six Pitchers Used in Matinee Game—Errors Were Numerous.

Oh me! Oh my! such games, . . . such terrible, terrible, terrible games. And the Eskimos lost both of them. The Regina Red Sox won both ends of the double-header yesterday. Never help the blind man, can you beat it? Who's the jinx around these diggin's anyway? . . . Ye gods and little fishes, can we never win a game? . . . and echo answers. . . Never-mmore!

17 to 15. . . that's the story of the first game, the afternoon contest. A record score for this burg in many moons. And the game was won and lost about a dozen times. Such an exhibition of our national pastime has not come to our notice since the good old days of '96.

Fine Baseball Weather.

And errors and hits were just as plentiful as runs . . . at least in the score column of the home team. Take a slant at the box score when you're not too busy and have a little time to waste, and see for yourself what a terrible time about 500 . . . hot and excitable fans enjoyed for nearly three hours yesterday p.m. If you can beat that, you win.

Assisted by the warm rays of old father Sol, about two dozen players started out to show just what can be done in a game of ball, fully demonstrating the uncertainties of every moment of play and the thorough recklessness of anyone who is willing to bet that the Eskimos ever have a game cinched.

Will the Worm Turn.

Say! . . . the way these Eskimos can win a game and turn around and hand it back, is marvelous to behold, and quite beyond the understanding of ordinary mortals. Suffice it to say, that they have the Golden Rule and the "charity begins at home" stunt, down to a science. Say! . . . If the Eskimos should ever go out and win two or three games in a row, there'd be so many deaths from heart failure reported the next morning, that all the undertakers in the city couldn't handle the business.

Of course, all this kind of bunk don't win ball games or help to make the team any better, but we heard a lot of this kind of bunko at the show last night, and it sounded like the facts as we understand them. But as to the game itself, it would take a book a foot thick and an adding machine to put all the varied and assorted details into cold, black type. So we're not going to do it . . . not all of it, at least.

Mister Wallace Wheeler.

And just look who's here . . . the old, old favorite??? Mister Wallace Wheeler, umpire de lux, to his majesty the president, James Fleming . . . Howdy Umps. . . . If you want to know more about this very notorious official, just speak to Manager Stis or Pitcher Reece of the Regina Red Sox. "How is it, how is it Umps?" . . . asked Reece of a close decision at second. . . "It's $5 to you," was all the enquirer got for his trouble.

Came near having to send up town for some more pitchers, as each team used three in the slaughter and the supply almost ran out. Well, perhaps the Eskimos' supply was not quite that bad, as at the present time there are no less than seven twirlers on the pay-roll. Doesn't seem enough, does it? However, it is said that Clayton and "Stub" Spencer are to go shortly.

Matts Had An Off Day.

About the only persons that didn't get a hit were the bat boys and the ticket sellers. Even Eddie Matts, the short-stop, got one, and that's no joke. But he also gathered no less than four errors and had an off day in the field. They went through his fingers, between his legs, under his feet, and all about him, but narry a one could he bang onto. Indeed, Mister Matts had a very bad afternoon. But he was not the only one in the error column. Take a look at it and find out. Errors were as thick as porous undervear and quite as expensive. Errors, wild pitches, passed balls, free passes, muffs, fumbles, hits and runs, were horribly mixed up in glorious array, for the space of two hours and three-quarters. And 500 loyal fans grinned and bore it . . . even if it hurt.

Used Three Pitchers.

Stallcop started for the locals, but didn't have a thing, and the visitors rolled his offerings all too well. He lasted four and a half innings, and was pulled out in favor of Lefty Russell, who had even less than his predecessor. Russ lasted just one and a half spasms and was followed by old man Kraft. Well, old silver locks didn't do so bad at that, and the old game switched back and forth, up and down, with the Eskimos finally ending up just a little bit behind. Two runs, to be exact, and when the final man was counted out, a huge sigh of relief went up from all quarters of the ball yard. It was one grand game . . . we don't think.

The Sox got one in each of the first two innings, while the Eskimos waited till the third to grab off four juicy ones. On they came, and the visitors peeled off another in the fourth and five more in the fifth frame. The Eskimos were blanked in the fourth, but the fans heaved a sigh of joy when they came through with a neat half dozen in the fifth. Score was now 10 to 8 for the home team and it really did look as if the Eskimos meant business. Well O.by did, but not for any more than a minute or two.

Had a Chance in Eighth.

Four runs were added by the Sox in the sixth and five more in the seventh. Sounds almost impossible, but you can look at the box score if you don't believe it. The locals managed somehow to steal a couple in the sixth, but were shut-out in the seventh. The eighth and ninth innings brought no further score to the winners, but the Eskimos kept a-coming and made two in the eighth, but in the last inning were handed a goose egg. At last the old contest was over, and the home team had once again lost that old ball game.

Evening Game.

The evening game was quite an affair too, and ended up in a 13 to 4 win for the Red Sox. Spaulding started the pitching for the Edmonton squad and lasted for more than half the game, but was asked to retire in favor of Stallcop near the close of the session. Botteroff was sent back for the visitors and pitched a pretty fair sort of exhibition. The Eskimos found him for a total of seven hits, while the Red Sox were getting to the local twirlers for 13.

Errors were not quite so numerous as in the previous contest, but three being chalked to each team. The locals made a good beginning by counting three runs in the first and one in the second, but that was all they got. On the other hand the Sox pulled one in the first and two in the third, and then kept piling them up gradually until a total of 13 had been collected. Two more in the sixth, five in the eighth and three in the last inning.

Botteroff Was Good.

There were few features in the game, with the exception of a delightful one-hand stab of a high one by Ollie O'Brien, which was of the spectacular variety. The Eskimos were weak at the bat, and Pitcher Botteroff had things well in hand after the first two innings. On the other hand the Sox were right on when it came to swatting the ball, and two and three base hits were common ordinary things. While hit a homer in the eighth to the right field corner and things in general were all to the merry for the visitors. The score is a very fair indication of the play. But please don't let it happen again.

The old pruning knife is busy again and this time, Jack Clayton and Stub Spencer are the ones to fall. They were handed the blue envelope last night, and with the return of Goldie, Ruell and Povey to the game shortly, some more releases are sure to follow.

HATTERS TAKE DOUBLE-HEADER FROM MILLERS

Scores Were 9 to 4 and 8 to 1 for Medicine Hat—Some Heavy Slugging.

Moose Jaw, June 16.—Medicine Hat outplayed the locals all the way yesterday, and took both games of the double bill by scores of 9-4 and 8-1. The first game was lost in the eighth, when Pitchers Kurfess and Harrah were pounded to all corners, the Manufacturers getting 8 hits and 7 runs in this frame. Previous to this big blow-up on the part of the home guard, Kurfess had easily the better of Buckles and was working on the comfortable lead of 4 to 2. Beautiful fielding by Daniels, who looked like a big leaguer, featured the game.

The second game was lost in the first two frames by the Weed. Parkins was sent in to catch Peet and the battery work was decidedly raw, Peet made two wild pitches and a wild throw, while Perkins allowed a passed ball. These misplays, coupled with a few hits, gave the Hat a lead of six runs. Then Weed sent Wally in to catch and he altered things considerably, steadying Peet down, with the result that the rest of the way was a pitchers' battle. Whisman's play in center field featured, he having seven put-outs and one assist in eight chances, something unusual for an outfielder. The scores:

Afternoon game—

Moose Jaw	1	0	0	0	0	3	0	0	0—4
Medicine Hat	0	0	0	1	0	0	7	1	0—9

Batteries—Kurfess, Harrah and Wally; Buckles and Barth.

Evening game—

Medicine Hat	1	5	0	0	0	0	2	0	0—8

Batteries—Peet and Perkins, Wally; Lind and Bliss.

WANDERERS WIN OVER STRATHCONA

Outplayed at all points of the game, especially fielding, the Strathcona C.C. went down to defeat before the Wanderers C.C. on Saturday. A glance at the score will show how much the Wanderers owe to G. Chalk, who, besides hitting up the splendid score of 71, was the means of securing three of the Strathcona wickets, running two out and catching one. He hit six fours and scored freely all round the wicket, but was fortunate in being missed twice.

The following are the scores:

Wanderers—A. Whitehouse, 22; N. Lee, 2; S. J. Thorburn, 0; S. A. Chalk, 71; J. W. Jarman, 17; C. B. Wood, 1; H. Neville, 13; D. Lee, 14; H. B. Victor, 2; W. J. Grout, 0; F. H. Gasson, not out, 0; extras, 4; total, 143.

Strathcona—F. C. Sealey, 4; Locke, 6; W. R. Marshall, 0; C. B. Cox, 0; A. McMillan, 10; C. Reid, 5; R. Hall, 1; C. J. VanVelzen, not out, 10; S. R. Tuffley, 1; W. H. McMahon, 0; G. C. Morris, 5; extras, 4; Total, 53.

Bowling—For Scona, Tuffley took 1 for 40; McMahon 3 for 65, and VanVelzen, 5 for 36. For Wanderers, Thorburn took 3 for 21, and Jarman 5 for 28.

M'GRAW IS FOXY BASEBALL PILOT

Got Claude Hendrix' Goat by Uttering the Word "Huh!"

Here is a story told about John McGraw, giant manager, to show just what a strategist he is.

Two years ago, when the Giants after having a big lead earlier in the season, began to wobble in a horrible fashion, the club stacked up against the Pirates for a four-game "crucial" series in the Stogie City. Claudy Hendrix, in his first year as a big leaguer, was getting away well as a regular. He worked against the Giants in the first game of that series, taking their measure in easy fashion.

McGraw's scouts told the Pirates would send Hendrix back at the Giants again in the last game. And he knew that Hendrix, confident through the first easy victory, might duplicate the trick.

So after the first game McGraw halted Hendrix as he was hustling to the clubhouse.

"Nice game you pitched, my boy," said McGraw in a sort of fatherly way, "nice work. By the way, what are the Pirates paying you?"

Hendrix told him. It wasn't any big salary, as salaries go these wartime days, but it was a pretty big salary for a youngster just fresh from the bushes. And Hendrix was proud of that salary.

"How much?" asked McGraw again in seeming surprise.

"Huh," grounted McGraw sarcastically. And then he walked away.

That "huh" sunk home. It changed Hendrix right there from a satisfied, contented, somewhat conceited youth to one sans conceit, to one lacking his former confidence, and made him somewhat dissatisfied.

And in the next game Hendrix worked the Giants grabbed the victory, which marked the turning point for them, lifted them out of the rut, and sent them breezing along to the pennant.

NATIONALS BEAT TORONTOS 28-10

Montreal, June 16.—Between five and six thousand people saw the Nationals defeat Torontos at the National rosse grounds Saturday. Weather was favorable, although there was a breeze blowing from the east. Roddy Finlayson, the referee, insisted at the request of Toronto, that everyone except the team and spares and one coach for each team be sent off the field.

The game was lively from the start. Laford scored the first for Nationals in less than a minute and in a fraction over a minute Toronto's first goal was obtained by Longfellow. There was a scrap between Cameron and Lemoureux, and Lemoureux head was split open. Cameron was ruled off for the rest of the match and fined $2 5. Lamoureux had to go off for repairs. Prior to Cameron's attack on Lamoureux a fight had taken place between Boullianne and Camplin, for which both men went off. Cameron took Camplin's place. Nationals, 28; Toronto, 10.

Boys' Club Wins.

The Eureka Boys' club won over the Wye Road in football last night by a score of 2 to 0. The boys are anxious to meet other teams.

Gun Club Shoot

The practice shoot of the Greater Edmonton Gun club is being held this evening at 6 o'clock at the club's traps on the Martin estate.

HARLEY GETS IN WRONG AT CALGARY ARRESTED BY POLICE DURING GAME

Well Known Saskatoon Outfielder Has Trouble With Umpire Knowlton and Banished From Ball Park—Throws "Cop" Around and is Arrested—Many Fines Handed Out.

Calgary, June 16.—Saskatoon won mixed it after Harley had been ordered the wildest game of baseball played in Calgary this year yesterday by the score of 6 to 5.

After the Bronks by a batting rally had edged into the lead in the seventh inning Walters hit a home run and tied the score in the eighth, and Collins scored a moment later when Reams tried to get him at third instead of throwing to first to retire the side.

In the attempted tag out an error was made and the winning run scored.

The scene of the game, however, was but a mere incident, clashes with Umpire Knowlton being the main feature. Altogether Knowlton affixed 65 dollars in fines to various players. In the fifth inning Harley and Knowlton from the grounds. The police were called and Harley was escorted from the grounds. Later he was arrested and was released from the police cells upon bail. He will be up before Col. Saunders this morning for assaulting an officer, for when the blue-coat tried to take Harley from the park the center fielder resisted arrest and shoved the officer into the wires.

At the same time a spectator came from the bleachers and tried to reason with the policeman who grabbed him and he too will be up for trial in police court today. The score by innings:

Bookies Got the Coin

Montreal, June 16.—One hundred thousand dollars is the estimated profit of the 36 bookmakers at the Dorval races on Saturday, when the $30,000 international Derby was run. Twice this sum was wagered during the day, according to the figures of those in touch with the ring, and the public were the sufferers on the results.

Callies vs. Strathcona

The following players will represent the Callies in a league game with Strathcona at the south side this evening: Parker, Orr, Kinsman, McIntosh, McPherson, Whitehead, Cowan, Collier, Bilsland, Tweedale, J. Hunter, Dickie, Davidson, T. Hunter, Thompson.

Was Knocked Out

WINNIPEG LANDS ON TOP POSITION

Winnipeg, June 16.—The Winnipeg Maroons jumped to the top of the Northern league again last night by disposing of the Grand Forks brigade in the first of seven games. The score was 4 to 2 and thirty-five hundred enthusiasts were thrilled time and again by the spectacular playing. The star fielding of Mark Freer at second base, and catches by Holman and Jacks were of the miraculous kind and the game was one of the most interesting of the season. House heated Donley in a pitchers' duel, principally through his own timely hitting. He drove in two runs and scored one himself.

BRICKLAYERS ARE ON STRIKE THIS MORNING IN CITY

Men Called Out Owing to Non-Recognition of Union Wage by Contractors.

TROUBLE BREWING FOR MONTHS PAST

Claim Gross Injustice and State They Are Prepared to Fight to Finish.

Bricklayers in the city went on strike this morning owing to the refusal of certain contractors, members of the Builders' Exchange, to abide by the recognized union scale of wage, namely, 75 cents an hour.

For the past 18 months the trouble, which has just reached a crisis, has been brewing. Upon the arrival of William M. O'Carroll, vice-president of the International Union, here last week it was hoped that an amicable settlement of the difficulty might be arrived at.

According to the statement made to The Capital by the vice-president today, he came prepared to meet the outstanding contractors of the Exchange and discuss the matter with them fairly in an endeavor to arrive at some basis of understanding. He further asserted that he had even gone so far as to request them to meet him, but was informed that they were "too busy."

The number of men effected by the present strike is 67, and it is given out that they intend to make a firm stand and fight to a finish. The bricklayers feel that they have been treated grossly unjust, as 75 cents is the recognized scale of a wage by 95 per cent. of the contractors in the city.

It is understood that so keen is the feeling of bitterness entertained by some of the members of the Builders' Exchange against the contractors that are standing out against the union, that they have threatened to withdraw from the membership of the exchange.

At the time the Commissioners sat as a fair wage council for the city in April last, affidavits were furnished that 75 cents was the standard wage paid the men. In some quarters this was it appears discredited.

President Blake, of the local union, states that it was even intimated that these affidavits in question were said to be false. The statement was challenged at the time, but although they have been since open at all times for inspection, the same has never been made by the parties who it was asserted made the charge.

"We have been very forbearing," said Mr. Blake, "and while we felt for a long time that we were working under an injustice, nevertheless we remained quiet. At last we have felt that we could stand it no longer."

Objection was raised by Alderman Clarke to the questions that were being put by A. F. Ewing to Detective Lang. Mr. Ewing was asking whether evidence had been secured against houses of ill fame and no action taken during 1912 and 1913, when Lang was on the force. Witness stated that prosecution had always followed where the evidence was sufficient.

"Unfortunately," said Mr. Clarke, "the position assumed by Mr. Biggar and Mr. Ewing has forced me against my own judgment as an alderman of this city to take the view that they are prosecuting persons unknown.

"I say if Mr. Biggar or Mr. Ewing see fit to examine a witness for the purpose of covering up what took place during 1913, I say they have misinterpreted their instructions.

"In view of what the press has said, I submit there must be some rule that will protect all concerned more than they have been protected up to now."

Justice Scott: I cannot adhere to technical rules of evidence.

Alderman Clarke: As the city solicitor informs me this inquiry covers the scope from the amalgamation till the passing of the resolution asking for the inquiry.

Justice Scott: Surely those who examine in chief a witness, have the right to re-examine after your cross examination. That is one of the ordinary rules of the courts.

Alderman Clarke: The question was clearly meant to lead to the amelioration of any conditions existing in 1913, described so minutely in regard to 1914.

Justice Scott: You will be allowed to ask questions again. You will have a free hand. That is going further than you could go in ordinary court procedure.

Alderman Clarke: There is nothing that your lordship can do in the ultimate findings that can undo the wrong I have been done by what has appeared in the newspapers already. Mr. Clarke exhibited to the court a copy of the Bulletin with a big head line across several columns: "Alderman Clarke named as solicitor to notorious woman of the underworld." He added that he did not endeavor to get information about his action for this woman from the woman herself, but tried to get it by hearsay evidence from Mrs. Bell. He held that Mr. Ewing was guilty.

Raising his voice, Alderman Clarke said: I came here to fight for my honor and to meet charges made by gentlemen whom Mr. Biggar has refused to call.

Justice Scott: I am not deaf, Mr. Clarke, and it is objectionable to shout like that. It is a near approach to contempt of court.

Alderman Clarke: I have not slept a wink since I read the papers last night and I am not in as fit condition to speak here as I would have been otherwise, I am sorry, your lordship.

Proceeding, Alderman Clarke stated that charges had been made by Revs. McGougan, Armstrong, Riddell and a Mr. T. H. Miller. The investigation was taking place on those charges and Mr. Armstrong had gone away for a month without being called and Mr. Stocker was away this week for three months. Several of the Bulletin staff had been requested to be called and Mr. Biggar had said that it was not necessary. Surely such charges as had been made were not the scope of the inquiry. Unless more care is taken by counsel," he added," we shall be forced to have a solicitor here." He also objected to the investigation going on one minute past the time the resolution was passed.

Mr. Biggar, in reply said it was quite untrue that he had refused to call any witnesses. He had used his judgment in regard to what witnesses should be called. Certain gentlemen, whom Mr. Clarke considered his political enemies, had assisted him in the investigation. Mr. Clarke had given him no indication as to what evidence it would be desirable to give and he was prepared to give Mr. Clarke precedence any time to go into the box and give evidence on his own behalf.

"Mr. Clarke is chairman of the safety and health committee," added Mr. Biggar, "and if it was a fact that he was acting for a woman of loose character, it appears to me a matter of some importance and I would not be doing my duty to the city in refusing to allow the information to come out." He did not know about the connection of Mr. Clarke as the woman's solicitor when the woman was herself in the box and did not learn it till afterwards.

Alderman Clarke said no member of the safety and health committee had been asked to give evidence or had ever been complained to. He was ready to go into the box as soon as he was asked for.

"I look upon Mr. Biggar," he added, "as the strongest counsel against me personally, that I have ever faced in any court."

Justice Scott: My instructions are clearly defined in the resolution passed by the counsel and I cannot restrict it in any way by directing the counsel that I have engaged. I have no control over the newspapers.

East is Acting Mayor.

Alderman James East will fill the position of acting mayor of the city during the absence of Mayor McNamara, who left on the Industrial association excursion, for Toronto on Saturday evening to attend the convention in that city. It is expected that his worship will be away about one month.

Inquiry Into Empress of Ireland Disaster Is Begun in Quebec

Quebec, Que., June 16.—Shortly after ten o'clock the inquiry into the Empress of Ireland disaster opened in the court house here today. The scene in the court room was impressive in its gravity.

The proceedings opened with the formal reading of the commission from the minister of marine and fisheries.

These are the questions on which the inquiry is required:

1. When the Empress of Ireland on or about the 28th of May last what was the total number of persons employed in any capacity on her and what were their respective ratings? What was the total number of her passengers, distinguishing sexes and classes, and discriminating between adults and children?

2—Did the steamer Empress of Ireland comply with the requirements of the Merchants Shipping Acts, 1894 to 1906, and the rules and regulations made thereunder with regard to the safety and otherwise of passenger steamers and emigrant ships?

3. In the actual design and construction of the Empress of Ireland what special provisions, if any, were made for the safety of the vessel and the lives of those on board in the event of collisions and other casualties?

4. Was the Empress of Ireland sufficiently and efficiently officered and manned?

5 Were the arrangements for manning and launching the boats on board the Empress of Ireland in case of emergency proper and sufficient? Had a boat drill and a bulkhead door drill been held on board and if so, when? What was the carrying capacity of the respective boats? What was the number and description of the lifebuoys and life jackets on board the vessel? Where were they carried? Were they in good condition and adequate for the purpose intended?

6 What installations for receiving and transmitting messages by wireless telegraph were on board the Empress of Ireland? How many operators were employed on such installations? Was the number of operators sufficient to enable messages to be read and transmitted continuously day and night?

7. At or prior to the sailing of the Empress of Ireland what, if any, instructions were given to the master or known by him to apply to the voyage? Were such instructions, if any, proper and adequate, having regard to the time of the year and dangers likely to be encountered during a voyage?

8 When leaving Quebec was the vessel in charge of a Quebec pilot? If so, when and where was the pilot discharged and what was the condition of the weather at that time?

9. After the pilot left the Empress of Ireland was a double watch kept on deck?

10. At what time in the morning of the 29th of May last did the Empress of Ireland first sight the light or lights of the Norwegian steamer, Storstad, and in what position was the Empress then, and what time did the Storstad first sight the light or lights of the Empress of Ireland, and in what position was the Storstad then?

Were the vessels crossing so as to involve risk of collision within the meaning of article 19 of the regulations for preventing collisions at sea? If so, did the Empress of Ireland comply with the provisions of the said article 21 of the said regulations?

11. After the vessels had sighted each other's lights did the atmosphere between them become foggy or misty so that lights would no longer be seen? If so, did both vessels comply with article 15, and did they respectively indicate on their steam whistles or sirens the courses they were taking by the signals set out in article 28 of the said regulations?

12. Were the circumstances of this case such as to bring into operation the provisions of articles 17 and 29 of the said regulations? If so, did the masters of both vessels take prompt and proper means or measures to comply with the requirements of the said article?

13. In what position in the river St. Lawrence and at what time on the morning of May 29 last did the collision occur? At what time did the Empress of Ireland founder, after the casualty occurred?

14. What messages for assistance were sent out by the Empress of Ireland after the casualty and at what time respectively were the messages sent out received at Father Point wireless station? Were prompt measures taken by those on shore to render assistance? What assistance was rendered by the government steamers Eureka and Lady Evelyn?

15. Was the apparatus for lowering the boats on the Empress of Ireland at the time of the casualty in good working order? How many boats were got away when the vessel sank? Did the boats—whether those under davits or otherwise—prove to be serviceable for the purpose of saving life? If not, why not? What steps were taken immediately on the happening of the calamity? How long after the casualty was its seriousness realized by those in charge of the vessel? What steps were then taken? Were all watertight doors in bulkheads immediately closed? What endeavors were made to save the lives of those on board and to prevent the vessel sinking?

16. How many persons on board the Empress of Ireland at the time of the casualty lost their lives by being killed by the collision or injuries from the collision or from accidents on board? What was the number of passengers and crew taken away in each boat leaving the vessel? How was this number made up, having regard to sex, class and ratings? How many were children and how many adults? Did each boat carry its full load, and if not, why?

Theatres and Picture Shows

HISTORIC TIMES ARE VIVIDLY PICTURED AT THE EMPRESS

In a special four reel feature moving picture production the strenuous times of King Louis XIII. of France are vividly pictured at the Empress theater in the film "Cardinal Richelieu's Ward." Conspiracy, scandal, intrigue all the mundane things that contaminated the court of Louis are understood from seeing this masterful film production. The romance of the king's favorite, Count de Baradas, and Cardinal Richelieu's Ward, Julie de Mortemar, bring the touch of sweetness and freshness, however, that make it one of the most delightful movies of quality that everyone should see.

It would take volumes of history to point out the characteristics of the time, the make-up of the manhood that constituted the court of the French king of that day, the intrigues, plots and counterplots that were hatched, so is all so interestingly and clearly shown by these pictures.

They not only serve a high entertaining value but reach a mark for its historical value.

Miss Flo La Badie as the beautiful little Julie, full of life, care free, endowed with the abandon of youth makes a striking character. The important and difficult part of Cardinal Richelieu is exceptionally well done by James Cruze, another of the film stars. The supporting cast are well cast.

A noteworthy feature of the film is the sumptuousness with which the various scenes are set. Truly no expense has been spared to make this picture a true mirror of the gaudy reign of King Louis.

It is a notable picture, well worth seeing, a picture that will be very much enjoyed. Today is the last time it will be shown.

MARGARET ILLINGTON'S GREAT SUCCESS "THE THIEF" AT LYCEUM

The Lyceum theater stock company presented Margaret Illington's greatest success, "The Thief," to a packed house last night. The drama, which is one res,lendent with sensation and emotion, was indeed exceptionally well staged. The caste of characters was such that could be desired and into each part was injected the uttermost feeling. Produced under the direction of Mr. Harold Holland, the acting in the various roles was such to be worthy of the most favorable comment.

In the two concluding acts, namely the boudoir in the chateau at two a.m. and that of the library scene the following day, the actors appeared at their best. Edward Hearn as Richard Voysin and Miss Irene Lorton appearing as Marie Louise Voysin, his wife, were the central figures in a setting that depicted the most abject and deepest of pathos. Their acting throughout the entire performance is filled with an abundant measure of fervency which fascinates the audience at all times.

In the closing moments of the second scene, and again in the last act before the final fall of the curtain, they held their hearers in a spell of admiration by their strong impersonation and vivid posture.

Mr. W. Howe, in the part of Raymond Lagardes, father of Fernand, the 19-year-old youth who self confesses to a crime of which he is entirely innocent, plays the broken hearted parent in a manner which many on the stage might fail to equal, and but few excel. The pathetic and heart-rending breakdown as the old gentleman is suddenly confronted with the facts of his only boy's supposed theft of several thousand francs from his stepmother, is superbly acted in the minutest channel of real and downright sorrow. The trying ordeal proves almost too much for the father of grey hairs when he hears from the lips of the son he loves so well that he is the guilty one.

Then follows the early morning scene in the boudoir of the Voysin's, in which Marie Louise breaks down and confesses to her husband that she is the real thief and not Fernand. At first she tries to conceal her guilt, but the truth is dragged from her by degrees by Richard, her husband, who discovers 6,000 francs in notes concealed in her purse, which she had concealed.

The final scene of reconciliation comes and once again are the ties of affection moulded anew.

The other characters, especially E. C. Edwards as Mon. Sambault, the detective and Fannie Keeler as Isabelle Lagardes, are well enacted.

The tone of supplication and strong moral derived from the play which is so ably staged reflects the greatest of credit on Edmonton's leading stock company. "The Thief" will continue to be the attraction for the week at this popular playhouse; with two matinees, one on Wednesday and one Saturday. Those who love good drama, have yet a treat in store if they have not yet attended the play.

MANY UPS AND DOWNS IN LAST OF SEASON'S ORPHEUM OFFERINGS

At the Empire this week the Seebacks—one man, one woman—open the bill with some whirlwind bag punching. Harry Seeback is the world's champion in this particular line and proudly showed his many medals. All the credit is not, however, due to the male part of the act, for the feminine part is really the most noticeable, Mrs. Seeback doing some clever punching and adding no little comedy to the act.

Paul La Croix, styled the "mad hatter," throws some hats around, assisted by a lady who beats on a drum.

Once more Orpheum time offers "the five melody maids." The act, though much the same in style, does not contain any of the original girls, but is a nice one, nevertheless, fairly well staged and with several pretty musical numbers.

Ray Conlin offers a ventriloquistic act of very much the usual kind.

And then comes Trixie-Trixie Friganza. In closing this much noted musical comedy star says she isn't as slim as she used to be. However, Miss Friganza has those great essentials, personality and magnetism, and put the audience into a state of enthusiasm. Her number on suffragettes delivered a la the noble redman in costume was the best of her several offerings.

Clark and Verdi, Italian comedians, have a nice comedy act and get it over well. Emil Palmer, with his trained bears, makes them do some astonishing and really clever things on skates and bicycles.

The bill will be repeated today and tomorrow with matinees, as usual, which will see the closing of Orpheum time till August 17, when, as the program announces, the "time will be back, bigger, better than ever if such a thing were possible."

ENTERTAINING AND DELIGHTFUL FILM ON AT THE BIJOU

The Bijou presents on the program that ends today two features well worth the small price of admission. The Morton players offer a cleverly done and funny farce comedy, "Bobbie's Wife," and the leading film production, "The Widow's Investment," is as entertaining and delightful a film as one desires to see. The picture tells of James Waldo and Henry Morgan, two get-rich-quick financiers of the Wallingford type, who decide to form a fake oil company. They leave the east and settle at Santa Maria, California. President Waldo has a daughter, Kate, who, at heart, is an adventuress. Waldo takes her along with him in order that she may ensnare Morgan and keep him to his agreement. Morgan takes his wife, Rose, with him, but she holds aloof from him because of his attentions to other women.

Widow Green of Santa Maria invests her husband's insurance money in the fake oil company and soon after her son Ebed goes to work on Waldo's oil drills. He falls in love with Marjorie, daughter of Stubbs, the head driller.

Stubbs strikes oil, but for a money consideration agrees with Waldo to keep the fact from the other shareholders so that the stock may be bought in cheaply from the shareholders, who, ignorant of the strike, will sell for the amount of the assessment Waldo says must be made. Eben learns of the strike and by a ruse buys the assessment and gets control of the company.

Eben marries Marjorie, Henry Morgan and his wife are reconciled and Waldo decides that honesty is the best policy.

The scenes of the oil country in California are most interesting and the settings altogether are of an impressive nature.

DAIRY CONDITIONS MUCH IMPROVED

MILK BY-LAW IS ENFORCED

Thirty Cans Rejected for Non-compliance—Other Departments Active.

According to the monthly report of the dairy inspector for the city, conditions show a decided improvement generally over that of the corresponding period for last year. In all 124 inspections were made during May. Twenty-one applications in this district were also turned down for dairying owing to lack of proper milk houses and stabling accommodation.

The milk inspector during the past month also rejected 30 cans for non-compliance of the milk cooling bylaw. Ten places passed license and six were withheld pending completion of improvements.

There were 109 complaints from the public in the sanitary department, 11 being from the south side. Notices to the extent of 223 were issued by the inspector for the abatement of nuisances and two prosecutions were made, resulting in one conviction and one withdrawal. A complaint was also received regarding the conditions of the Frank coal mine, near the eastern boundary of Forest Heights. Upon investigation the same was found to be outside the city limits and therefore beyond the jurisdiction of the local authorities.

The food inspector made no less than 1,099 inspections, including meat markets, groceries, hotels, cafes, bakeries, confectionery stands and wholesale establishments during the previous month. The general observance of the law was found to be quite well lived up to.

Excursion to Eastern Points.

A considerable number of inquiries have been received concerning the proposed excursion to eastern Canada, being arranged by the Western Ontario association of Edmonton. Interested persons should make inquiry at once through the city passenger agent, Grand Trunk Pacific offices, or David Elston, secretary Western Ontario association, 425 12th street, city.
